

Instructions

This is a funny fill-in-the-blank letter. It takes two people to fill in the letter. You'll have as much fun "writing" this letter as your camper will have reading it!

Here's how it works: First, print out the next page. Then, without showing another person the letter, ask them for words like "animal" or "place" and write the words in the blank spaces provided. Fill in all of the blanks and you'll have a funny letter to send your camper.

Enjoy!

Dear (camper's name) _____,

This is a special letter – and it's just for you! It's a little silly and it's a lot made up. We hope you enjoy this and have a great time at camp!

About Your Bedroom

The first thing you should know is that everything is fine. Really. But I have to tell you that I was a little worried...

After you left for camp, we cleaned up your room so it would be nice when you came back home. And it all seemed fine until _____ (day of the week).

You see, we were asleep in our _____ (furniture) when all of the sudden, we heard a loud _____ (sound). Oh my gosh, I almost fell on my _____ (body part). I was so _____ (emotion) that I jumped _____ (a direction) and ran down the _____ (room in a house) to see what was happening.

As I got closer to your room, I could see that something wasn't quite right!

It seems that all of your _____ S (clothing), _____ S (clothing), and the _____ (something you keep in your bedroom) were in a pile in the middle of your floor! And as I walked over to your _____ (part of a bedroom)

I was sure I could see a great big _____ (scary animal) staring at me! And it sounded like this: _____ (funny sound).

All I could think was, what will _____ (your camper's name) think when they come home! What will I do?!?

But it's OK, because I made up this imaginary story! Everything is just as you left it! And a good thing too: I wasn't looking forward to cleaning up all of that _____ (something messy)!
